LOGOS

Dear Chris,

You laugh alot but it is nice to have some laughterin a class or else it would be boring.

From Faith Bolin

Dear Chris,

You have been a good friend all year!

Michelle Cress 787-7742

To: Chris,

I have enjoyed being in you class this year. I hope you are in my class next year.

Georgia Grant 844-6790

FLO

don't come crying to me if you get hit by a car that blames you for throwing aconns at cars win it's really Jeff and Jay because I will to.

Dear Chris,
Have a happy summer!
I'll see you next year.

Together We Grow

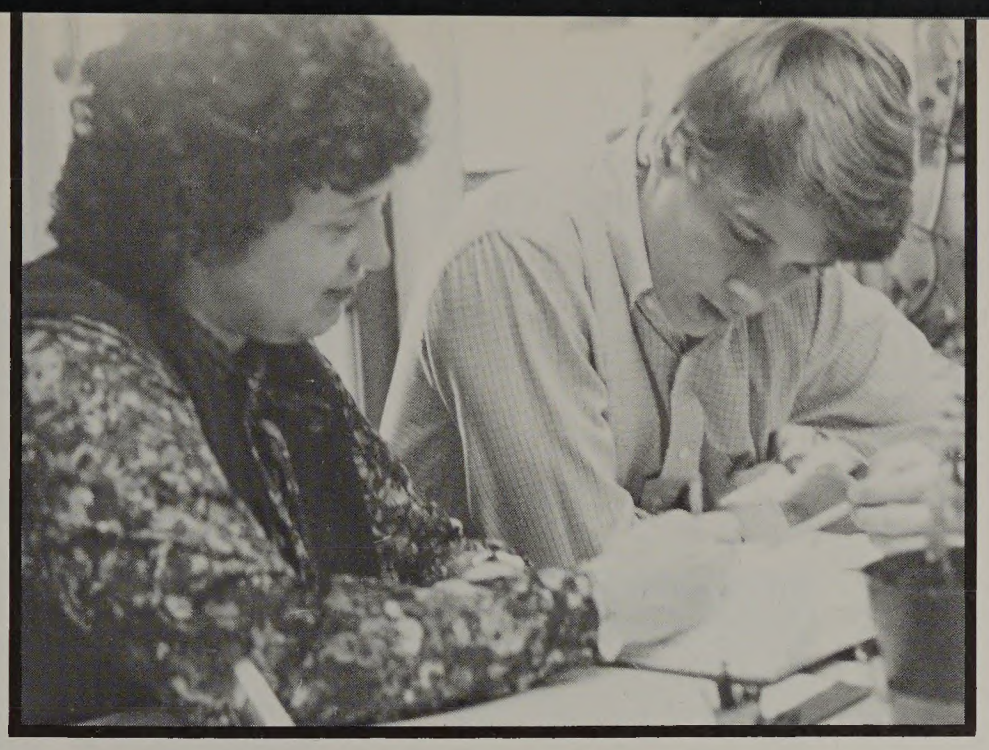

With one another have we grown-
Together we feel the joy-seek the knowledge-take the chance-
The moments, laughter, dreams, and tears are ours always.
Giving of ourselves, and receiving from one another-
We share
We learn
We live

-Naomi Means

Even on peaceful days
With quiet waves and wind,
The sailor off the helm
Should never take his mind.

-Anonymous

Of not the leaves and trees we dream
But merely of the sun,
For it shall pass day by day
Until again we come.

-Reid Coyner

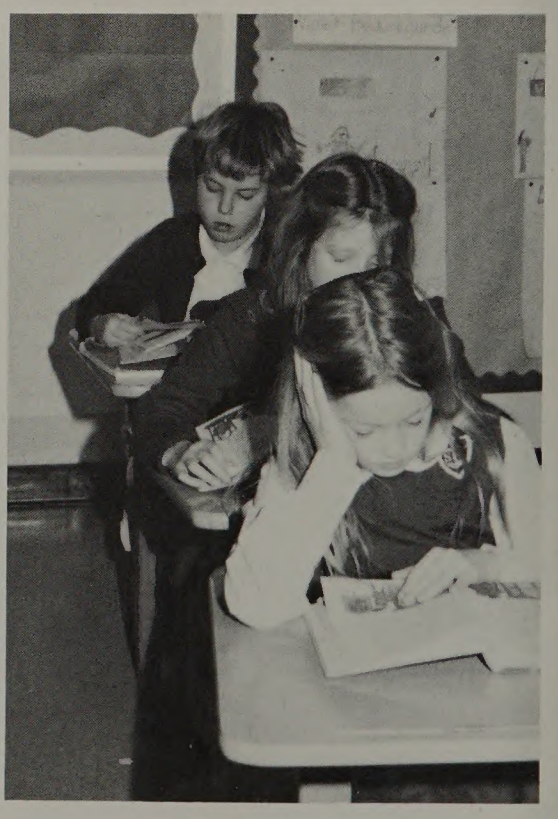

The water-still
The leaves-down
- All our cogs turning
'til we fill them round.

-Reid Coyner

Life:
Of autumn we shall learn
Of summer we shall burn.

-Reid Coyner

While it's summer people say
Winter is the better season.
Such is human reason.

-Kamijima Onitsura

Of summer we do think,
Winter we abhor;
All is left but spring and fall
Of which we shall see more.

-Reid Coyner

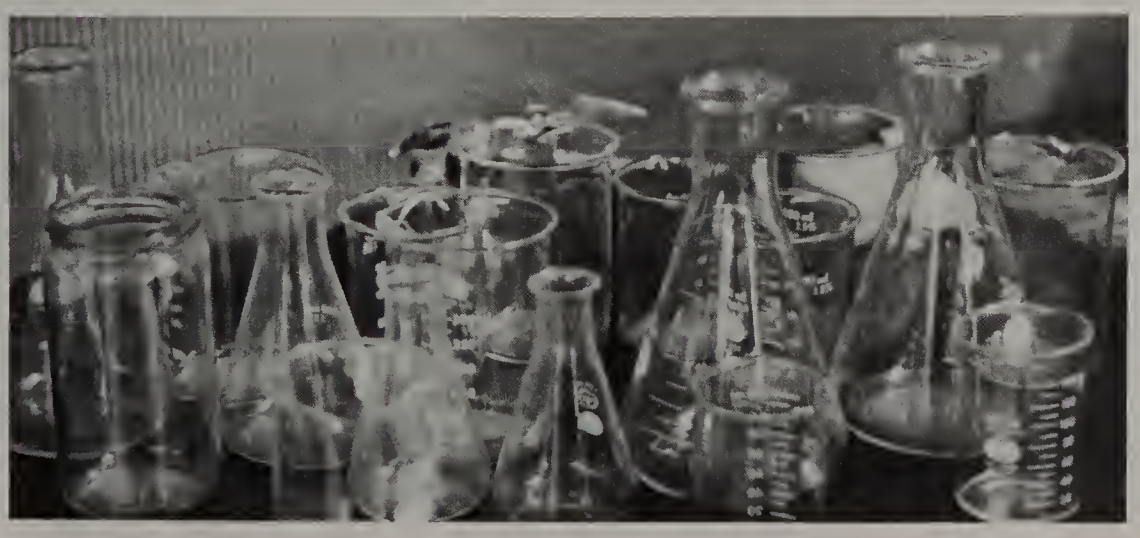

Come, let us go out tonight
And get wet in the falling snow;
If we wait for dawn tomorrow,
It may melt away, to our sorrow.

-Oharida no Azumamaro

Spring rain:
Everything just grows
More beautiful.

-Chiyo-ni

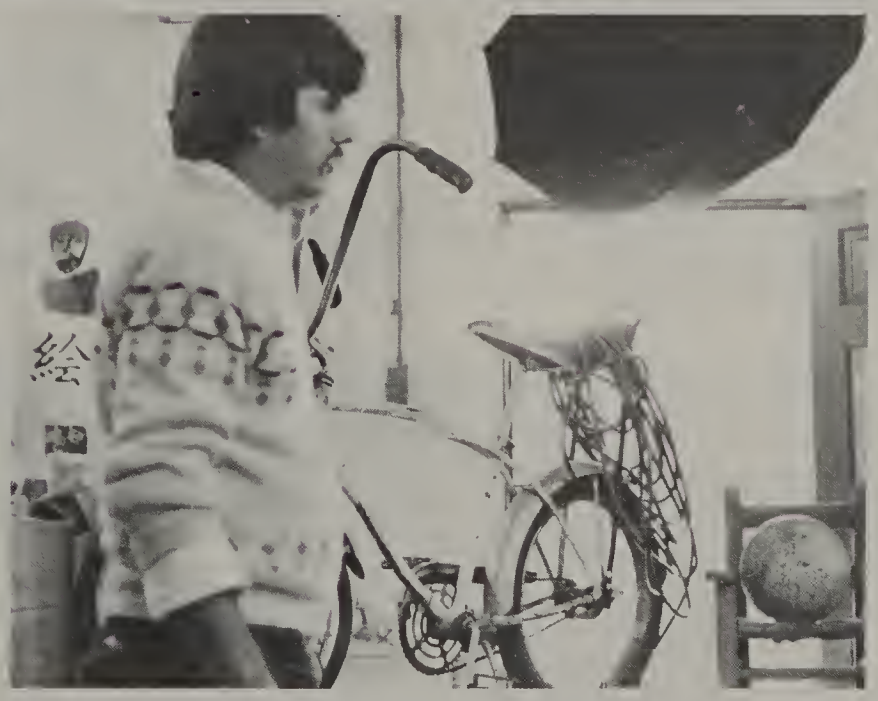

The winter gone,
The spring seems to have just come round;
Hark! with the sweet songs . . .
Mountains and fields resound.

Together We Grow

As the theme for this 1981 edition of LOGOS, the yearbook of St. Timothy's-Hale High, the staff has chosen "Together We Grow," a theme which, we feel, is the essence of life at the two schools. As a child grows into an adult, he must learn many new things. LOGOS 1981 is an attempt to portray this process in five major areas of growth . . .

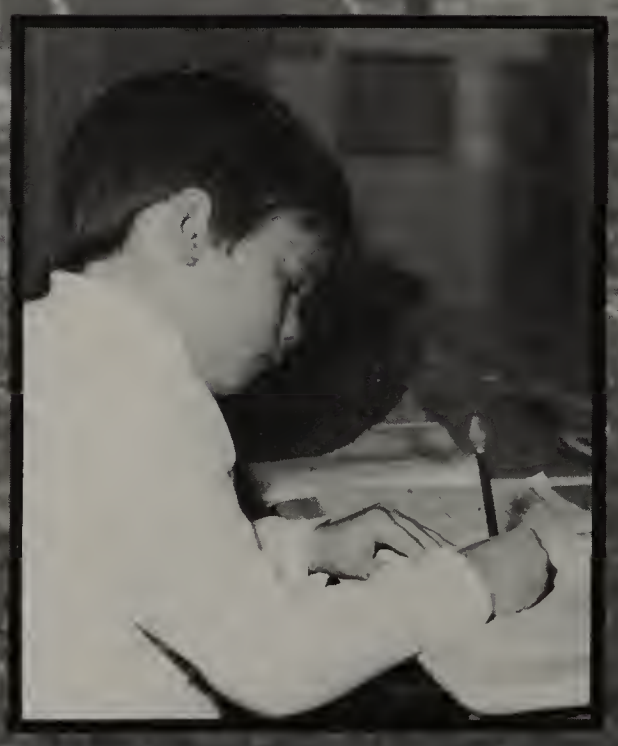

. . . Socialization

. . . Talents

. . . Leadership

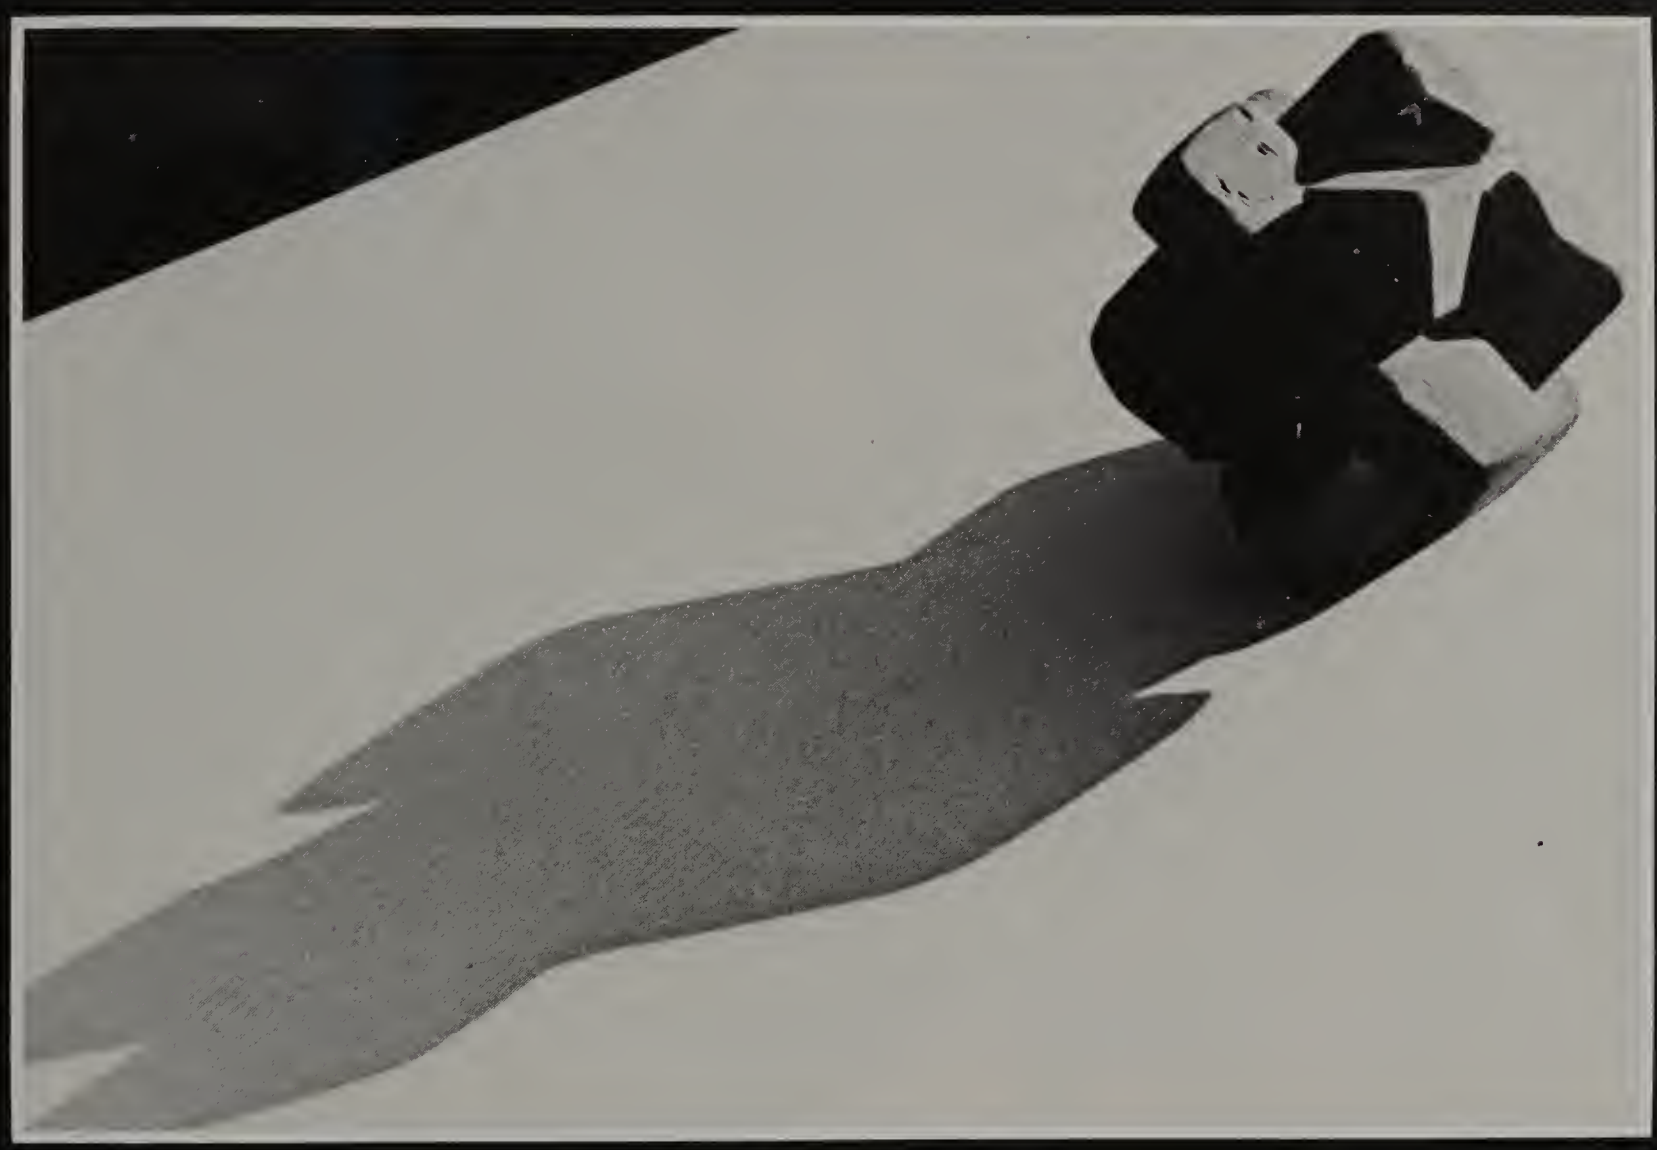

. . . Scholarship

. . . Sportsmanship

Senior Memories

Chris Clark-Bollingbrook, stopping at McDonald's on the way home from road trip, Baseball '79-'80, the teachers who influenced and helped me, the things that I have learned and my changed attitude as a senior. I'll remember the teachers and students I met here.

Reid Coyner-Of Hale I have few quiet memories that exist but only in the minds of those who were involved. Of the rest I really don't care to remember.

Doug Durham-Paul's Cabin, P.S., My T.A., night with G.B. and M.B., Fast Fare with V.R., G.K. and Buddy, Racing in the Streets, Blue Marlin Hotel, M.D. #1 and #2, Rallies, Face down and Flea, Darlin, Let's make a deal, week-end with S.A., K.J., and M.B., Office, Beach week, 4 at 3, 10 lb. bass, ski trip and being delirious, B.B. Gun raids, windows and Blue Whale Car Wash, Brick, The Grill, Proms '79 and '80 and room 117, Elton John with C.D., Allman Brothers with P.B., and Eddie Money with M.B., and the long anticipated Bruce Springsteen Concert.

Byron Ellenburg-Soccer, Baseball, Ken Andrew's Class, Mrs. Barham, gym with Mr. Messenger, and Fr. Hale's whistle.

Pam Etheridge-Cats in Biology (Meow!), "Poodle", "Yellow", Mr. Marsh, Mr. Hilton, Slave days, J.B.R., away games, Bollingbrook, Pep Rallies, "J.T.", Jr. Jerks, Mid-evil banquet (England), Atlanta (T!!), "Scab", Bobby Hoyle, Chapel, sharing boyfriends with Amy, Hugh's party, Clay, Spicer, and Alonzo, The "Nomad", summers at the beach, Homecoming '80, chemistry.

Anthony Flanagan-Diplomacy, war games, Bollingbrook, (all three of them), Kenwood, Mike, Smith G. (last of the great avid rockers), Baldwin and all of my wonderful teachers, Quebec, England, Paris and the "triple moon", Brussels (the last party before going home), Soccer Sundays and last but not least, Fr. Hale and his whistle.

Ben Freeman-My beloved Road Runner, Europe, Rocky Horror (elbow sex), S.M.'s Thesaurus, Eye Spy, "Where the Buffalo Roam", Foreigner, Nantucket, and Santana, Road Trips with HHSVS.

Frances Harris-Foreign Language Festival '80, Day Care, "Short People", Algebra III, Honor Society Convention at Caswell and Burlington, Herod, McGregor's Essays, the "Butcher's Block", Raising money for the Jr-Sr, and, of course, the class of '81!

Debbie Lee-German Parties, Do we have any spoons?, NHS bake sales, Jr-Sr preparations, Nutty Buddies for Angie and Martha, no. 422 c.c. at Chapel Hill, "Sweet Innocent Doris", "Beware of USER", Homecoming '80, pink carnations, Hollywood Day, Junior Class is having a meeting, Annual staff '80, Mr. Moore's plant, Chemistry tests History maps-Mr. Andrews, Freeman's Geometry, English class-5th, I, Claudius-Lilly w/Cheryl, "Prep!", Typing (Mrs. Fleming), "JERKS", hockey practices, The ice man cometh, Don't fall off the bleachers, Lifesavers and Kisses, I'd rather hack than ra, scavenging at McDonald's w/Sara and Naomi, smellophobia, Did you win, John?, turning 19 on Dec. 14, "Hi Parham!".

Chris Leith-Flying Brick from angry pimp-M80, Blue Whale Car Wash with D.D., State-Carolina soccer game with J.H. and S.N., W and L Trip with J.H. and S.N., "Twenty dollars for us two", Jr-Sr with L.D., Bollingbrook '78, '79, '80, Golden T/A, Mafia, "Cocaine", "Natural Lite".

Sara Mitchell-May 13, 1978, Ensemble trips to Quebec and Atlanta, My favorite teachers: young and old Mr. Andrews, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Freeman, Mr. Ballard, Dr. Hicks, Mr. Middleton, Miss Sockell, and Mrs. McGregor, Mr. Andrews grueling exams and coaching, The Junior Jerks (especially Doug, John, and Reid), wet spots, being picked as Annie in "Cheaper by the Dozen", selected as a Morehead Scholarship nominee, my only beer, 16 and 12 red roses, my trip to Caracas, one out of three with Chris, coaching the "little dabbers" soccer during Christmas, my surprise birthday party, Esther Reyes, dark beer and white russians at Darryl's, reclining seats in the Honda, smelling Ben's neck and kissing his cheeks.

Dan Pope-"Eye Spy", Bollingbrook, smoke bombs and bottle rockets, art room, "Meteor!", Fireside, Anglophobia, Fury T.P. in M.M.'s Trees, chess club, Diplomacy, Knowledge Bowl, debate team, "45!".

Jill Rand-"The Butcher's Block", Homecoming '80, Honor Society Convention at Burlington, Jr. Class hog dog sales, light bulb sale, and car wash, Foreign Language Festival-"Le Petite Prince" and Mime, English with Mrs. McGregor, Geometry with Mrs. Freeman, going out to lunch, French IV, Herod, dancing for Mr. Andrews, Fr. Hale's class.

SENIOR QUOTES

Cheryl Brooks-Rhonda's Rumination: "It's always darkest before it's pitch black."

Chris Clark-"I thought the test was tomorrow. Test, when? Today!"

Reid Coyner-I am, but I might not be, at least I don't think so."

Doug Durham-"And I take her to the floor looking for a moment when the world seems right." -Bruce Springsteen

Byron Ellenburg-"Come on guys, Quit dinging around."

Pam Etheridge-"I can protect myself from my enemies, but Lord protect me from my friends." - Voltaire

Anthony Flanagan-"Life is a dance, too bad I have two left feet."

Ben Freeman-"He who casts the first stone better have some more rocks ready."

Frances Harris-"There is more simplicity in the person who eats caviar on impulse than in the person who eats Grape Nuts on principle."

John Hartigan-"It's Millertime!"

Debbie Lee-"If there is a will, there is a way."

Chris Leith-"Later."

Sara Mitchell-"If you think you are beaten, you are. If you think you dare not, you don't. If you'd like to win but think you can't, it's almost a cinch that you won't. If you think you'll lose, you've lost. For out in the world you'll find success begins with a fellow's will-It's all in the state of mind."

Melanie Perryman-"Here's to the people and places I've known, Here's to the love and the pain that is gone, Here's to the joy and sadness I've seen, Here's to the unfinished dreams, and Here's to what memories mean."-Mike Cross

Dan Pope-"Look before you leap."

Jill Rand-"If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Cheryl Brooks, leave only a question: why would anyone willingly leave behind anything of value? (Graduating is not like dying.)

I, Chris Clark, leave my athletic abilities to whoever wants them. I also leave HHS the same way I found it.

I, Reid Coyner, to anyone who still has an untameable spirit, leave you the idea that there is a rose on the other side of knowledge. To get there you must smell the rose as if it is there, but if you don't find the rose, it doesn't exist.

I, Doug Durham, leave my Banza, driving ability, and my ability to get and avoid traffic violations to Andy Eades, my appreciation for Bruce Springsteen to Mr. Moore and Will, a guilty conscience to ES, my love for running laps to Bobby Safrit, and my basketball abilities to Jim Welch.

I, Byron Ellenburg, leave my ability in soccer to Ken and Will Holt, who really don't need them, and my love for English with Mrs. McGregor to David Lynch.

I, Pam Etheridge, leave my tolerance for being cut down to anyone who has to go through what I did with JH and CL, my ability to endure twelve long years at St. Timothy's and Hale to Teresa Mitchell, she'll need it, and last but not least, good luck and congratulations to the "Junior Jerks" who finally graduated!

I, Anthony Flanagan, leave my military tactics to Bobby Jones, my soccer skills to Paul and Hugh, my ability to get along with others and my appreciation for the human character to "Aunt Mame".

I, Ben Freeman, leave my driving ability to CH, my Doors tapes to JW, my chairmanship of HHSVS and my "cheap sunglasses" to BR.

I, Frances Harris, leave to the underclassmen that special wisdom and charm that only develops during the senior year.

I, John Hartigan, leave my preppy clothes to Crissy Boylan and Martha Ducan who really need them most of all.

I, Debbie Lee, leave my smiles to Parham, my intuition to Michelle, and my special thanks to Father Hale.

I, Chris Leith, leave my calm, relaxed driving abilities to Bobby Safrit.

I, Sara Mitchell, leave my everlasting patience to all future officers of the Junior classes, for they will need it, my love for RNHA to all those who don't appreciate his brilliance and sweetness (the latter he keeps disguised much of the time), my high standards for southern gentlemen to the girls who believe there aren't any left, my wonderful ability to talk and get lost in Durham all at the same time to Naomi Means, my love of Dr. Hicks' ENUNCIATION to those who might appreciation it as much as I to the point of wanting to pinch his cheeks, and my thesaurus to the memory of Ben, Chris, and Doug.

I, Melanie Perryman, leave my volumes of Chemistry and History notes to any underclassman who can read them, my "well, anyway" to Mrs. Freeman, my "you're never gonna believe this" to Mrs. Millin, and my ability to get out of study hall to Melissa Smith.

I, Dan Pope, leave complete and total control of the chess club to Ross, if I ever find it, and my MPG to Michael or anyone who can stand it.

I, Jill Rand, leave my place at the barre to Doris Freeman, and my diamond sparkle to Pam Fisher.

Disaster Strikes!

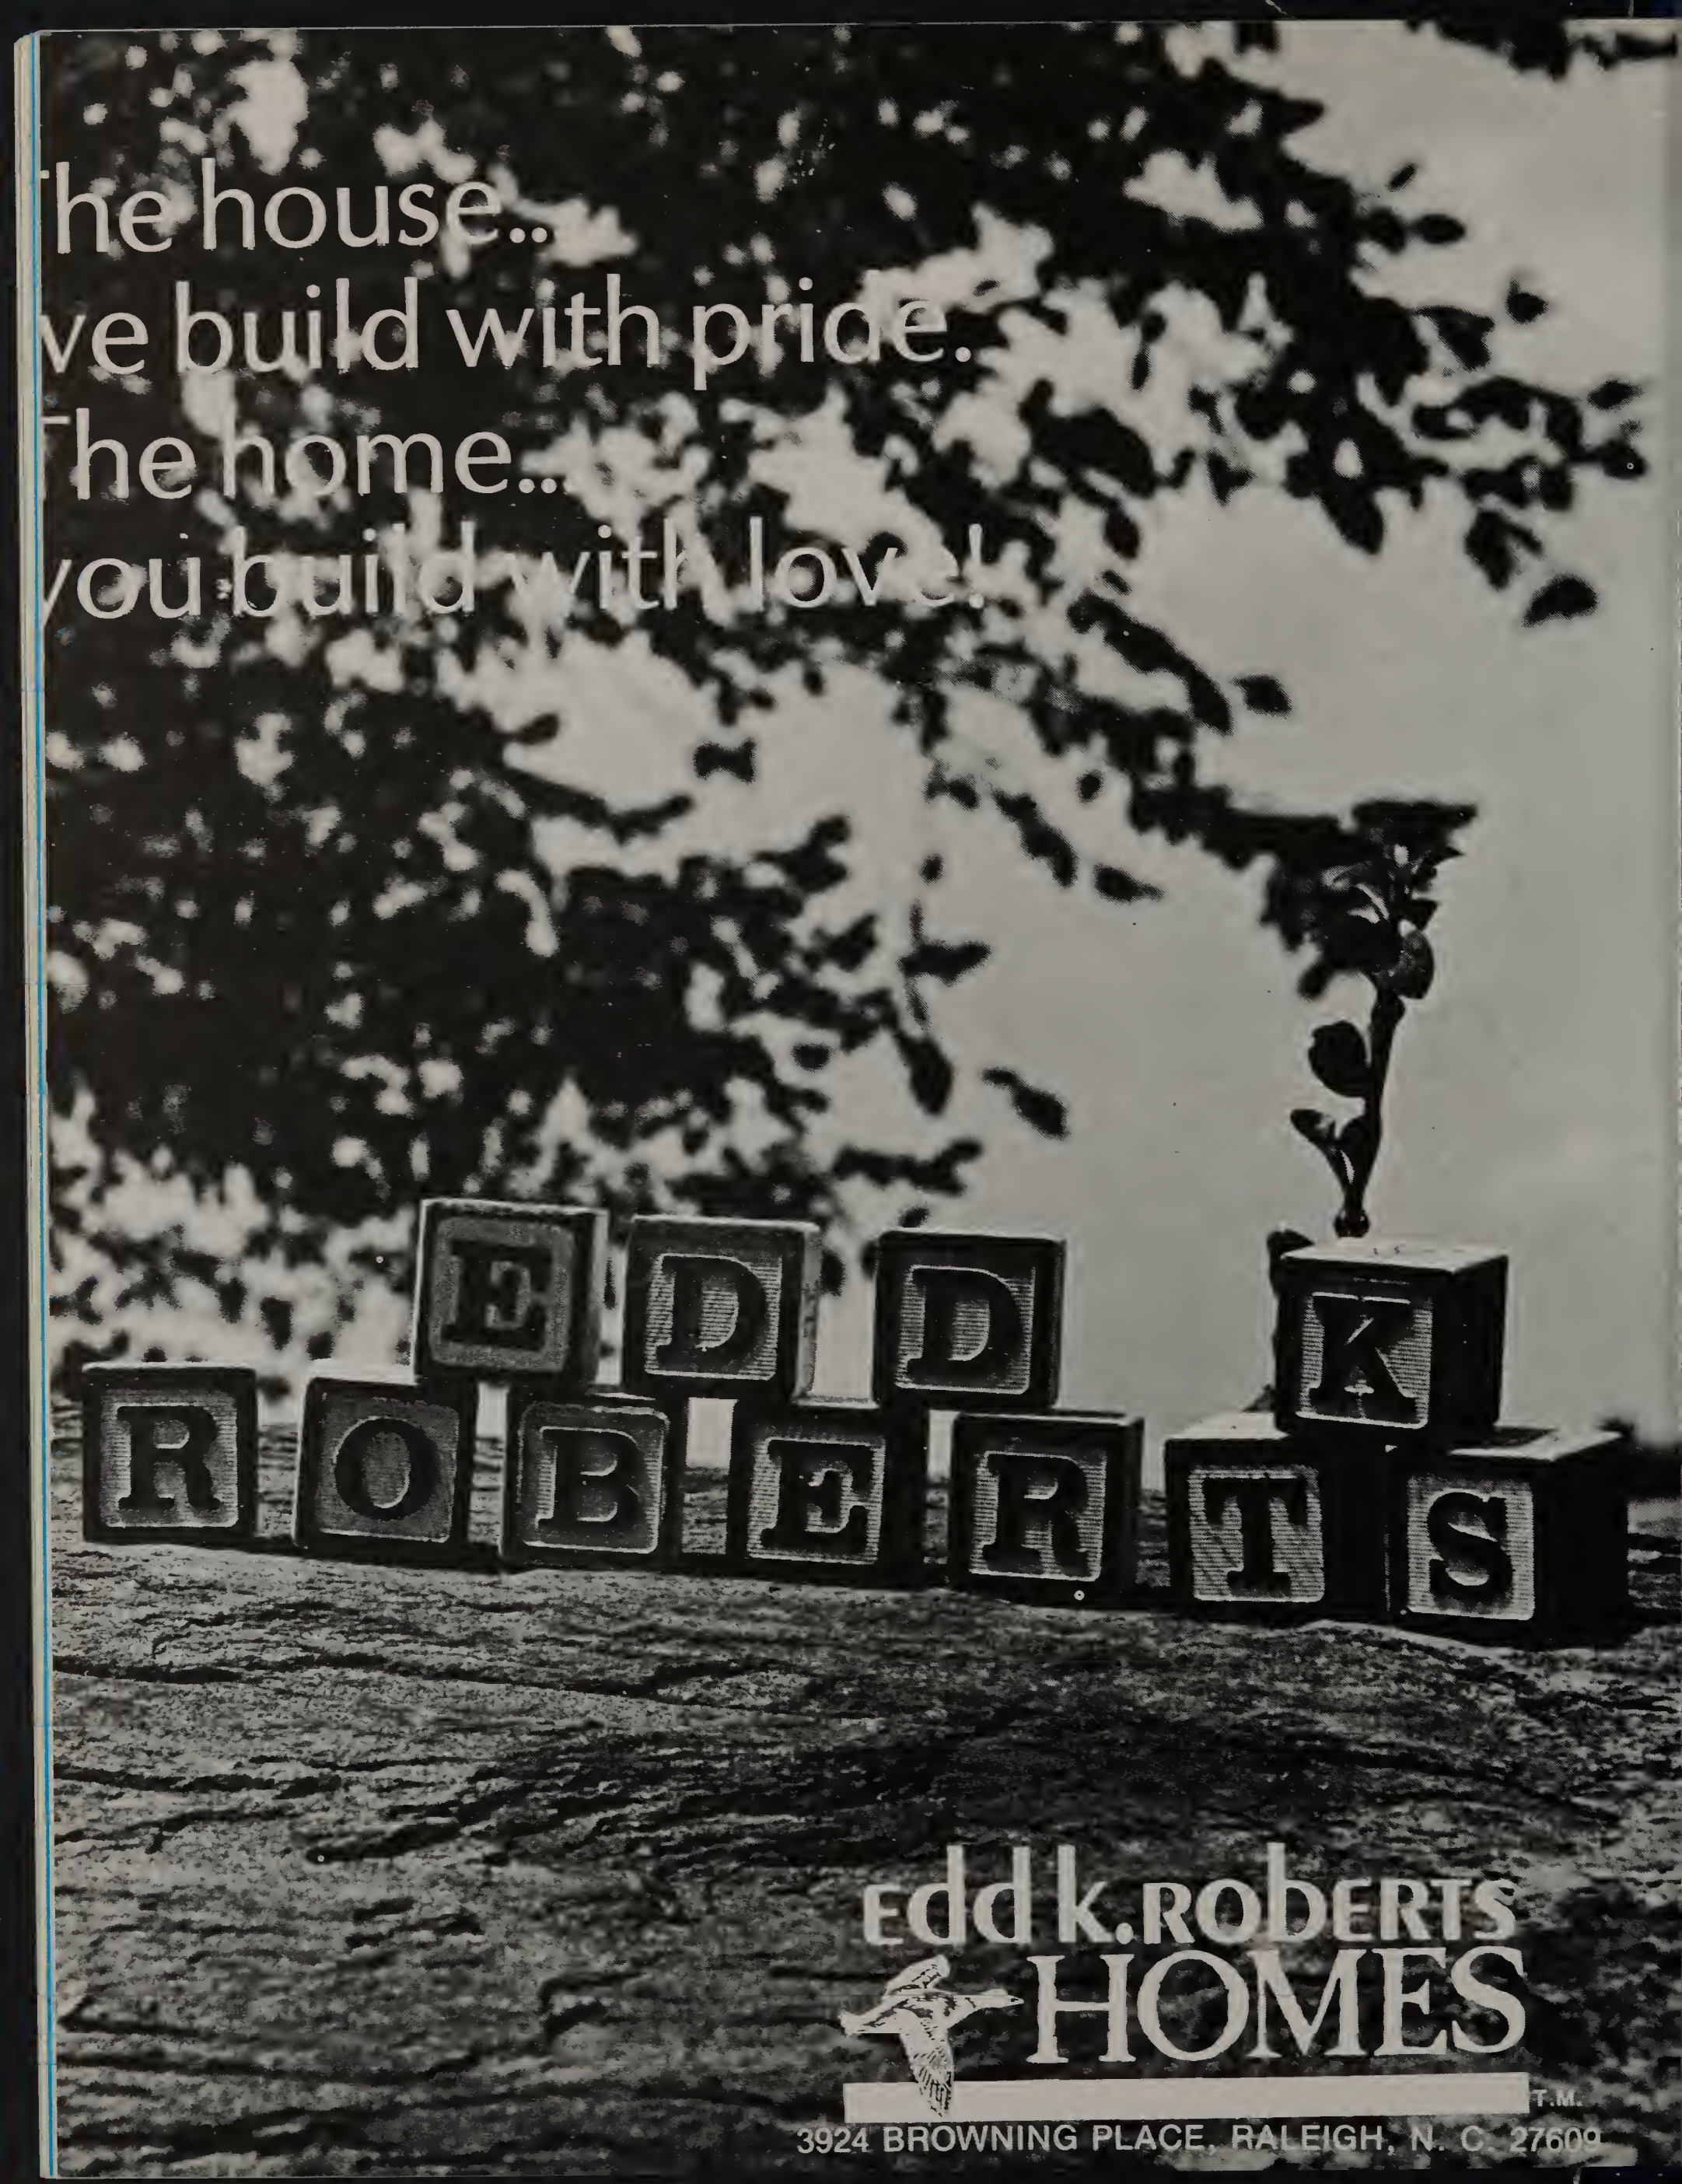

I have seen tempests when the scolding winds
Have riv'd the knotty oaks, and I have seen
Th' ambitious ocean swell, and rage, and foam,
To be exalted with the threat'ning clouds;
But never till to-night, never till now,
Did I go through a tempest dropping fire.
Either there is a civil strife in heaven,
Or else the world, too saucy with the gods,
Incences them to send DESTRUCTION.

LOGOS regrets having misplaced the semior memories of John Hartigan from page 106 and adds them here to the Memories and Last Will and Testaments of two seniors who joined the class after these pages were sent to the publishers.

Senior Memories:

John Hartigan: Bollingbrook 79-80, "20 dollars", Jr.-Sr. 78-79, Carolina-State Soccer Game with SN and CL, Lynchburg with CL, SN, LN, W & L Trip, 9*th* grade Basketball, Soccer, Alder Root Hill, Turfing Yards, Lola, Cocaine, "Natural Light," All Other Good Refreshments, Sweetbriar's front yard, Rolling BA.

Ross Stevens: Who is Egdon Heath? Anglophobia (Anglican Anglophobes of London, Ltd. & American Anglophobes Assoc.), Debate-Topicality and Inherency at Freedom, Alice's Restaurant, Stevens' Geometry (Its' pointless), Art Mart, Inc., Chess Club, Diplomacy, King of England and Her possessions, Mr. Ferris's History class, Mr. Murphy's Basketball team, Mrs. Helms, my private secretary, and, of course, Annual.

Joe Stoffregen: '79 Buick Regal, JV Basketball, "Is it gonna Snow?", November 21, looking at houses, Mr. Ferris's history, "NO thanks, I'll have a Coke".

Last Will and Testaments

I, Ross Stevens; leave LOGOS to Michael (for lack of a more qualified person). The Pope-Stevens debate File to next year's debate team (This will include our secret Source: Senate Document 96-43, 96th Congress, second session, 1980.) and the Anglophobic Association to dedicated Anglophobes everywhere.

I, Joe Stoffregen; leave my ties to Jim Welch, my English essay notebook to anyone interested (call 847-6308) and my love to Karen.

I leave . . .

to continue on where fate may find,

where destiny's hand may guide,

but do I ever go?

I leave you not alone,
for I will never depart.
I remain in the smiles,
the troubles shared,
the joys revealed,
the balm of wounds now healed.

I leave you not alone,
or with simple memories
which dim and fade.

I remain within you . . .
within you always.

-Naomi Means

Chris,
You've been really nice this year. I hope you have a super summer. Maybe I'll see you sometime during Summer! Maybe. Bubie-Q
